How Disraeli Got Tight

Mr. Disraeli's remarkable speech upon the first night of the debate on the Irish Church bill and its inglorious termination, was attributed at the time to intoxication, but a London correspondent of the New York Times, thus explains how it was that he became "demoralized."

When Mr. Disraeli first proclaimed his discovery of the new Popish conspiracy, it was under circumstances which led people to pass over his remarks in a spirit of charity. Had he let the mischief stop there, it is probable that nothing further would have been said on the subject. But he seems to be suddenly possessed with the idea that what he says now he must stick to. He is the very last man we expected to do anything of the kind. We are used to his swift changes, and after forsaking great principles why should he hesitate about eating a few imprudent words? Apparently, he thinks that he must stand firm in future to every statement he makes. This, to be sure, is a poor motive to ascribe for such an act of folly as he has been committing now, but any other explanation of it passes conjecture. I have already told you that when Mr. Disraeli made his concluding speech on the Irish Church debate, he was excited. The real facts may now be mentioned, for the Premier seems resolved to make the occasion historical instead of suffering it to be forgotten. When he began his speech he was very much exhausted, and after a time he turned to a friend who sat beside him on the Treasury Bench and asked for a glass of weak brandy and water. Finding it is to be presumed, the benefit of this mild potation, he had it repeated, and before he had finished, he drank three glasses of the mixture. His speech, at the beginning, promised to be one of the finest ever delivered in the House of Commons, and members of all parties were warmed to enthusiasm, in spite of themselves, by it. It soon, however, began to be almost incoherent, and moved by compassion for the Minister, the House cried, "Divide, divide." Mr. Disraeli took the hint, but, before he sat down, he, in the most confused and excited manner, made his now celebrated charge, that his rival opposite, Mr Gladstone, had made a formal alliance with the Ritualists and the Papal party for the overthrow of the English institutions. The House was somewhat disturbed by the scene, but as Mr Disraeli's drinking had all been done under their own eyes, and the circumstance of his being in ill-health was by this time generally known, there was no disposition to treat what was really a misfortune as an offence. It was exactly the incident connected with President Johnson's installation repeated in the House of Commons.

A SOUTHERN MONARCHY.—Louisiana was settled by the French in 1717. In 1762 it was ceded to Spain, and in 1800 transferred to France, by whom it was sold to the United States for $15,000,000, in 1803. The State was admitted to the Union in 1811. In 1860 the population of New Orleans was 160,000, in 1868 it is 200,000. The coast line extends 1,256 miles, not including the island, that give 994 miles additional. The inland navigation is greater than of any other five States, and amounts to twenty thousand miles. There is scarcely any point in the State that is twenty miles from navigation. Three fourths of the State, comprising the upland or alluvial portion, is covered with live oak, pine, cypress, white oak, gum, ash and other lumber. There are 1,000 lakes, of which 31 are of considerable size and are all filled with fine fish. There are 63 different rivers and bayous, of sufficient size to be useful. The Mississippi washes the State for 800 miles, and the Red River more than 600, the Atchafayla and Ouachita, 700, and the Sabine, 600. There are 446 miles of railroad in operation, and new lines are talked of. One half of the State is rolling upland, where the hills never exceed 250 feet in hight, one-fourth is alluvial, and the residue prairie and sea marsh. Much of the upland belongs to the Government, and will be sold under the Homestead law. Yet to what a condition of dependence and poverty have the people of this favored spot of nature been brought. Fine improved plantations, of 2,000 to 4,000 acres, within twelve hours of New Orleans, with buildings and machinery, can be bought for ten dollars an acre, and at this rate Northern and Eastern men are buying the property up and driving the natives away.

THE ORIGIN OF DIXIE.—I do not wish to spoil a pretty illusion, but the real truth is that Dixie is an indigenous Northern negro refrain. No one ever heard of Dixie's land being other than Manhattan Island until recently, when it has been erroneously supposed to refer to the South, from its connection with the pathetic negro allegory. When slavery existed in New York, one Dixy owned a large tract of land on Manhattan Island, and a large number of slaves. The increase of slaves, and the increase of abolition sentiment, caused an emigration of slaves to more thorough and secured slave sections, and the negroes who were thus sent off naturally look back upon their old homes, as they could not imagine any place like Dixy's. Hence it became synonymous with an ideal locality, combining ease, comfort, and material happiness of every description. In those days, negro singing and minstrels were in their infancy, and any subject that could be brought into a ballad was eagerly picked up. This was the case with Dixie. It originated in New York, and assumed the proportion of a song there. In its travels it has been enlarged, and has gathered moss. It has picked up a note here and a note there. A chorus has been added to it, and from an indistinct chant of two or three notes it has become an elaborate melody. But the fact is, it is not a Southern song, and cannot be rubbed out. The fallacy is so popular to the contrary, that I have thus been at pains to get the real origin of it.—Cor. New Orleans Delta.

ANOTHER HUDSON RIVER RAILROAD.—The New York Evening Post is informed that, notwithstanding the defeat of the West Shore Hudson River Railroad bill in the New York Legislature, that the work will begin on the road immediately and be prosecuted with vigor. A charter has been obtained from the New Jersey Legislature, and in New York State the road will be built under the general railroad law. The route extends from Jersey City to Athens, following the west shore of the Hudson river as nearly as practical, passing under the Palisades. A large part of the capital has already been subscribed. The contract for building the road as far as Newburg was concluded several days ago, and work has already begun. The company have the exclusive right of way around the military reservation of West Point by Congressional grant. The engineers report that Newburg can be reached without a tunnel.

ANOTHER NIAGARA SUSPENSION BRIDGE.—The people of Buffalo have revived the project of bridging the Niagara River at that place. The Buffalo Express says that Mr. Wm. A. Thompson, one of the Directors of the old International Bridge Company, has entered into a conditional arrangement with Messrs Charles Kellogg & Co., of the Phœnix Iron Works, of Philadelphia, after the plans patented by that firm. The plan of the bridge is the same as that now building across the Mississippi river at Burlington, and will be one thousand seven hundred and fifty feet long. The price agreed upon for the new structure is $716,000. The Express believes this amount can be raised, and that the work will soon be under way.

The Political Demonstrations Saturday Night

A tremendous Union meeting was held at the Court House on Saturday evening. The building was crowded and packed until it became impossible to effect an entrance, and large numbers went away. The Democrats being in attendance at their own demonstration, the crowd was composed wholly of Republicans, and much as the former boasted of their numbers, the latter far exceeded them. There were 580 persons, boys included, in the Democratic procession as was ascertained by actual count as it passed the Court House; while the number of persons in attendance at the Republican meeting, as the Court House was densely filled, must have been twice as large. About one-third of the crowd with the Democrats had collected [illegible] from Oregon City, from the east side of the river and other outside places, but the [illegible] as to numbers, was a creditable [illegible]. Much time and labor had been expended in preparing for it. It was officered in part by the Democratic policemen of the city, who devote most of their time to heated partisan discussions and to "working in a general way for "the ticket." After the crowd had assembled at the Union meeting, Hon. J. N. Dolph made an opening speech of much force, at the conclusion of which Mr. Logan appeared, and was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause. His speech was [illegible] efforts, and the cheers loudly and long, with which it was received showed the favor in which Mr. Logan stands with the Union party and indicated the determination [illegible] effort which will be made to elect him. There was everything to give encouragement in this closing demonstration of the campaign on the part of the Union party.

Dr. McBride and the Adams Circular.

I have this minute finished the perusal of a private letter, purporting to be from W. L. Adams, addressed to me. I do not know who the real author of it is, nor is it my concern at this time to know. But I consider it most [illegible], supremely mean, and unjust, both to Mr. Logan and the Union Republican party that nominated him. It is a foul calumny, not only on Mr. Logan, but upon the nominating convention as well.

[illegible] that Mr. Logan has done some things which he, upon reflection would disapprove [illegible] and amendeth not, is it not an outrage upon fair play to make so gross, so foul, and so calumnious an attack upon him, and the Republican party, through [illegible] at this late date, just on the eve of election? If I had not before intended to vote for Mr. Logan, this sheet of traducement would constrain me to vote for him with earnestness [illegible].

It looks very much as though some vicious Copperhead [illegible] Mr. Smith's election, and had in his despair resolved on appealing to the lowest and basest passions of our nature as a last resort.

"Remember that a vote for LOGAN is a vote for Grant and Colfax."

J. McBRIDE.

[illegible] May 30, 1868.

On Duty To-day

Every Union man in the city ought to devote the day to work for the Union cause [illegible] this election and spare no effort that can possibly be put forth. We [illegible] a proposition has been made by many business men to discontinue their usual occupations so as to have opportunity to devote the day to the election. This ought to be done. We can carry this election if we do our duty. It would be shameful to allow apathy to [illegible] the State will be close and the result to a great extent depends on [illegible] rally to the work to-day. If each man does his part the the victory is sure.

A Piece of "News"

There has been an attempt among those who three years ago cursed Johnson as a despot and wanted to hang him, to get up some enthusiasm over the announcement that he has been acquitted on the remaining articles of impeachment. Since the vote was taken on the eleventh article, nearly three weeks ago nobody has anticipated any different result when the Senate should come to vote on the other articles. The case was therefore decided weeks ago, and the "news" of the acquittal is rather stale to be called news.

The Marysville (Cal.) Appeal says: The nomination of Colfax instead of Wade, and the declaration of the principle that the suffrage question belongs to the States, don't suit the Copperheads. They believed that Wade would be unpopular from his extreme radicalism, and they thought the Union Convention would adopt a platform to suit Copperheads [illegible] the Union party. These [illegible] disappointments. The negro-suffrage question cannot be lugged into the Presidential canvass. What will the Democratic party do for a hobby?

[illegible] Appropriate.

One of the marshals of the "Democratic procession on Saturday night was an individual who boasts of having served in the rebel army. These self-confessed traitors always find welcome and employment in the "Democratic" ranks.

So great is the newly awakened "Democratic" ardor for flying flags, that on Saturday night at the head of their procession they carried the British banner with as much stateliness and pomp as if the demonstration had been in honor of John Bull and there had not been an Irishman in the city to witness it, or a Fenian in Oregon who would not as soon march under the British flag as under the green banner of his own Emerald Isle.

The Zeal of New Convert's

There is one feature of this political campaign which we have been much pleased to witness. We allude to the unusual display of national flags by the Democratic party. It has been extremely gratifying to observe that men who would not carry a national banner in 1861 have been so far "reconstructed" as to walk under its folds without manifesting any hatred or contempt for this symbol of our nationality. We rejoice to see men who besought us just seven years ago not to unfurl the flag in Oregon and who were greatly offended by the persistency of the secretionists in flinging the national banner to the breeze in every quarter of the State and in calling on the people to rally to its support, we rejoice to see these men now unfurling the flag and assuming again their long unused garb of patriotism. True there is no special occasion for these exhibitions of patriotic ardor just now; such demonstrations are almost supererogatory as the country is at peace and there is no immediate danger of any attempt to subvert it; nevertheless we are pleased to observe the change which seems to have taken place in the Democratic mind in regard to the flag. Men who never saluted the banner during the four years unpleasantness salute it now with all the zeal of new converts. Men who implored us a little while ago not to raise the flag lest it might irritate a portion of the people, and create disturbances among us seem to have quieted these fears. The sight of the old banner is not anything near so irritating as it was five years since. Then, no Democrat carried a flag. Then, the banner graced no Democratic torchlight processions. Then, no brass bands discoursed Yankee Doodle for "Democratic" ears. Such things were never heard or seen in Oregon from the year 1860 until now. But we rejoice that things have now partially changed at least in appearance, that Democrats can now look on the flag without being "irritated" or offended. Gratifying as this is, however we ask if it would be altogether wise to make these new converts the sole custodians of the national banner? Might it not be well for the people to inquire whether it would be altogether safe to entrust the destinies of the nation to those who are carrying the banner now for the first time in the period of eight years?

Poll Taxes and Greenbacks

We give the following at the request of Mr. Dolan. We make no remarks in reference to the Herald's charge except to repeat the question put by a contemporary: "Who believes the falsifier, with his striped back?

> We have stated on the authority of a respectable Republican that John Dolan, the Republican candidate for Assessor for the third term, has made a practice of collecting the poll tax in coin and paying the same into the treasury in greenbacks. No one has denied or attempted to palliate this charge. It is no crime under the law but is nevertheless a fraud upon the people which should not be tolerated.—Herald.

PORTLAND, May 30, 1868.

I hereby certify that John Dolan never has paid to me of moneys he collected as Assessor for Poll Taxes, in any other currency than gold and silver, and has never offered to pay in greenbacks at any time, as stated in the extract cut from the Herald.

D. W. WILLIAMS,
County Treasurer of Multnomah Co.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, on this 30th day of May, A. D. 1868.

WARD S. STEVENS,
Notary Public for Oregon.

THE NICOLSON.—It is a significant fact, that wherever the Nicolson pavement has been tried it has won favor as the best yet invented, says the St. Louis Democrat. In New York, a small section has been put down to test it, and, while persons interested in other pavements deny it, the public generally are becoming strongly in favor of its adoption for that city. In Chicago, where they have attempted to evade the patent, a great deal of the pavement there called "Nicolson" is in reality a worthless imitation, which does not wear well nor deserve public favor, but it has nevertheless been very extensively used. In Cincinnati it has been faithfully tried, and the Commercial says:

> "The Nicolson pavement is gaining in favor, and a good deal of it will be laid on the streets of the city during the summer and fall. It offers many advantages that the bowlder pavement never can have. It makes a smoother roadway; it is elastic and easier for a horse to travel over; with reasonable care it can be kept comparatively free of mud and dust; drainage is rapid; and drays, heavy wagons, and vehicles of all sorts, make little noise in passing over it. It is especially desirable as a pavement in the immediate vicinity of churches, school houses, and public buildings, where quiet is a first essential for study, deliberation and public speaking.
> There is the question of durability yet to be satisfactorily determined. It is complained of it that it wears out readily and is easily unsettled. But from an examination of it in streets where it has been laid, we come to the conclusion that the fault is not in the pavement itself, but in the manner of laying it. The blocks appear to resist wear and that remarkably. If compactly and firmly put down, they do not chip or split, or get out of place, and will last for many years before becoming so worn that others must be substituted.

The people are appealed to to elect W. P. Doland Treasurer on the plea of charity. Mr. Doland, we doubt not, is a worthy man; but when he ran as the Union candidate for the same office some time ago, those who are now making appeals for him were entirely deaf to every argument of the kind they are now urging. If Mr. Doland's necessities are great we are indeed sorry to hear it. An appeal on his behalf to those who have money borrowed from him at rates of interest advantageous to himself, would probably be an effective way of giving him aid.

The Polk County Signal says of our own Beriah: "Mr. Brown, the editor of the Herald, is advanced in years, small of stature, and enjoys feeble health." Does Beriah recognize his long, attenuated corpse by this description?

CIRCUMLOCUTION.—At Cincinnati a few years since, an unsophisticated darkey waited upon a certain military gentleman with a bill of $19 15 for washing done at the camp hospital, which after undergoing a rigorous scrutiny by the officer, was returned with the following explanation, which the astonished son of Ethiopia listened to with an equal amount of wonder and perplexity:

"This bill," said the military gentleman, "will first have to be sent to the Quartermaster General at Washington, and he will report to the Adjutant General, and he will lay it before the Secretary of War for his approval. The Adjutant being satisfied, it will be sent to the Auditor of State, who will approve it and send it to the Secretary of the Treasury, who will send it to the United States Treasurer who will at once dispatch an order to the Collector of this port to pay the bill."

The darkey relieved himself of a long-drawn sigh. "Then, massa," he remarked, "dat last gemblem yoo spoke do, pays for de washin' does he?"

"No," continued the other, "he will hand it to the Quartermaster, but as there is no such officer here at present, some proper person must be appointed by the Secretary of War under direction of the President and his appointment must be approved by the Senate. Congress not being in session now the commission cannot be issued until after it meets. When this commission is received the Quartermaster will show it to the Collector, or he will pay it, you giving your receipt."

The unfortunate negro first scratched his head, then shook it, and finally said:

"I guess I'll hab to let dis washing slide but it am de last job I does for Uncle Sam, shure!"

The People's Party

Dispatches seem to remove all doubt about the result in Georgia. It, as they state, the Constitution has been ratified by nine thousand majority and the Republicans have elected their Governor by seventy-seven thousand, with a working majority in both Houses of the Legislature, the victory is more complete and decisive than we have dared to hope. Indeed it is remarkable that the Republicans have won at all, in view of the tremendous efforts made by their opponents and the power which those opponents were able to wield. If with all the wealth, the land, the control of labor, the State and local government, the press, the telegraph, the churches and reports of Democrats in every race at the North to aid them, the opponents of reconstruction have nevertheless been so handsomely beaten there need be no doubt that Georgia will soon rank among the most strongly Republican States.

"Many negroes voted the Conservative ticket," boastfully exclaim the Democrats. So much the better, for every black Conservative was balanced by a white Radical. There were a considerable majority of white voters on the registry lists. When the heavy negro counties were heard from the rebels felt sure of success and even claimed the State by 20,000 majority, because so large a number of negroes had voted the rebel ticket. Very well. If there were 25,000 colored Conservatives the result proves that there were over 35,000 white Radicals. What becomes of the war of races? Which, pray, which is the white man's party? We ask with intense anxiety. As good Democrats we could not bear to vote in the same party with these brutish, ignorant and worthless blacks, or to owe a victory to their votes. The very thought is horrible. Therefore we beg to know which is the white man's party. If these so called Conservatives of Georgia affiliate politically with these "brutish" negroes and consent to run the risk of social equality, "miscegenation" and all the rest of it, by going to the polls with them, how can any honest and pure minded Democrat take the tainted hand of the Georgia Conservative. They must stand back. The "white man's party" scorns to receive them into fellowship.

Seriously, the division of the negro vote is a thing most earnestly to be desired. It will render both parties willing to accept and resolute to perpetuate a change which might otherwise be established only after some strife. It will compel both parties to strive fairly and equally to secure the votes of the colored people, by giving them the education which will fit them for voting intelligently, and by respecting their civil and personal rights. It will remove a main obstacle to the growth of the Republican party among the whites, for when neither party is "the white man's party," then the mass of the people will be able to see that the Republican is the loyal man's party, the freeman's party, and the party of progressive ideas and men. Therefore, divide the colored votes as much as you can, Messrs. Conservatives! For every vote that you gain we shall gain two.—St. Louis Democrat.

THE WRONG WOMAN.—The Pittsburg Chronicle relates the following:

Reading an article in which Mrs. Oakes Smith relates a story of a woman proposing to the wrong man, reminds me of an occurrence that happened twenty years since. A distinguished professor and divine from this neighborhood was on a visit to some friends east of the mountains and was introduced to a very respectable family which had two accomplished daughters, one of them very handsome and the other very plain. After spending some weeks in the neighborhood and having frequent opportunities of meeting the ladies he became quite enamored with the younger and prettier of the sisters. He, however returned home without showing any preference. He was a man of very sedate and studious habits and soon became absorbed in his books and for a time he seemed to forget his new acquaintances, but the image of one of them seemed to be continually before his mind. After having maturely considered the matter and having, I have no doubt, sought guidance from on high, he concluded to open a correspondence with the object of his affection. Unfortunately or fortunately as he afterwards stated, he addressed the wrong lady. He had got their names transposed. The correspondence finally led to an engagement. The day was fixed for the wedding, and the grave and reverend D. D. entered his appearance at the proper time. But what was his consternation to find that he was going to marry a lady he had not courted. But being a sensible and honorable man, he said nothing about it, believing the hand of Providence was in the matter and was actually married to the sister of the girl he thought he had won. Time wore on, she proved to be a most amiable, intelligent, affectionate wife. He never told the story till after the younger sister was happily married. He never had reason to repent the mistake and he to this day is firm in the belief that God so ordained it for his happiness. "All's well that ends well."

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT IN SCHOOLS.—A LITTLE STORY.—The Boston Transcript gives the following in regard to corporal punishment in Schools:

For the present certainly, we leave the discussion of the corporal punishment question in the hands of our intelligent and zealous correspondents merely remarking that the ability to keep school without resort to the rod, depends very much, in our opinion, upon the temperament, tact and knowledge of human nature on the part of the master. We have known teachers to do more by mere manner than we ever saw done by any amount of flogging. One difficulty troubling teachers is the demand for results in the way of instruction, which almost compells them to resort to the ferule to secure immediate order and good behavior. Under existing circumstances if the use of that weapon is ever justifiable it is in the case of small offenses involving no moral turpitude, and where a little reminder addressed to the flesh is needful to correct momentary thoughtlessness. In graver cases, the conscience, not the back or the palm is to be attended to. But to our brief anecdote: A certain school had been kept, and well kept too so far as outward propriety was concerned on the reign of terror principle, hardening the boys whilst threatening their fears. The Committee deposed the tyrant and substituted a gentleman of another type. He soon had to deal with a rough customer. He called him up. The wilful youngster immediately stepped boldly and saucily forward and stretched out his hand. "What are you doing that for?" "To take my licking." "My boy, I'm not going to strike you. I never whip lads like you. Sit down here at my table and keep quiet for the present." The "bad subject," as he had always been esteemed, looked amazed and burst into tears. He was used to blows at home and in school. But kind words and friendly treatment were a novelty to him. He was proof against flogging but not against kindness. He became one of the most docile of pupils. The simple moral of this story would seem to be, that those youths generally supposed to be ungovernable without the employment of the rattan are just the youths to be dealt with in a different style.

WENDELL PHILLIPS AGAIN ON THE RAMPAGE.—Wendell Phillips excels himself in his last scold through the Anti-Slavery Standard. Taking "Magnanimity Mad" for his caption and "A gushing thing was the youngest Miss Pecksniff," for his motto, he slashes on all sides with equal ferocity and relish. The Brooklyn Pope is the first target.

Fake Beecher pouring out his thousand dollars and sending his eloquence round the world in behalf of that nest of vipers and cage of unclean birds, Lee's college—deeming himself a model of magnanimity while he is trifling with his civil duty, exposing the deadness of his moral sense and his entire ignorance of the first principles of the faith he professes to teach.

Greeley gets an incidental cut for the Davis bail affair, and then comes the turn of the entire United States Senate.

The last sample of this mush of magnanimity is the Senate admitting all the President's idle tattle, to show how extra fair they can be. These Senators forget that they are not sent there to exhibit their own virtues, but to try a general criminal.

We consider the Senate's course in this matter as weak pandering to this sickly magnanimity mania. Our people are snobbishly and foolishly sentimental in treating a well to do socially reputable man—Lee, Davis, Johnson, Beecher, Saulsbury, M'Dougal, Forrest, and the chivalrous murderers of Union men.

On the occasion of the erection of a monument to Paisley, Scotland, over the remains of Robert Tannahill, a famous song writer, a glass bottle was deposited in the foundation stone containing among other things, a tooth of the poet, which had been extracted from the remains a few years after his interment on the occasion of the contiguous ground being opened for the burial of a relative. The relics were accompanied by a statement from the brother of the song writer showing what difficulties he had to encounter in obtaining them from the parties among whom they were distributed.

CHICAGO, 26.—The Post's special says the Republican Senatorial caucus [illegible] Farmer's resignation. Quite a breeze occurred when the six Senators who [illegible] the impeachment entered. [illegible] Cattell and their Radicals left the caucus and refused to participate while these were present.

[illegible] that Seward and [illegible] tendered their resignations [illegible]

WASHINGTON, May 27.—[illegible] has notified the President that owing to the failure of the Senate to convict the President on the articles of impeachment thereby failing to sustain the resolution adopted July 21 that the President has no power to remove the Secretary of War, he has relinquished the War Department, [illegible] the same with all its books [illegible] Adjutant General Townsend [illegible] the discretion of the President.

The nomination of General Schofield was deferred for several [illegible] executive session [illegible] difficulty was in the phraseology of the [illegible] message nominating Schofield [illegible] Stanton removed. Anthony [illegible] passed resolution declaring that the President had no power to remove Stanton. Senators objected to confirming Schofield. It is probable however that he will be confirmed with an explanatory appendage.

Affairs at the War Department are unchanged. Townsend is still in possession [illegible] Thomas has made no demand for the office.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The Post's dispatch says Thomas has not taken possession of the War Office [illegible] Stanton [illegible] The Senate will probably confirm Schofield to-morrow as Secretary of War. Cameron objected [illegible]

NEW YORK, May 27.—The Herald's special says Democratic members have signed a paper [illegible] the National Democratic Executive Committee to extend an invitation to the Conservative Soldiers and Sailors organization throughout the country to attend the National Convention July 4 and participate in the deliberations.

Gen. Thomas [illegible] possession [illegible] War Office as Secretary ad interim.

The Times' [illegible] several members of Congress [illegible] Stanton from resigning but ineffectually.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Thurlow Weed published a card charging Senator Pomeroy with either having intended to dispose of three votes [illegible] impeachment [illegible] that his friends should use his name to make money. He mentions Senators Nye, Tipton and [illegible] Leggett, Gaylord, Pomeroy's friends, [illegible] to influence, but he [illegible] believe they authorized any arrangement or they would have voted for acquittal.

OTTAWA, May 26.—Witness Turner who testified against Whalen was inveigled [illegible] man and brutally beaten. Two of the ruffians were arrested. Other witnesses have received threatening letters.

NEW YORK, May 26.—Mayor Hoffman has received letters from North Carolina asking for provisions and supplies in interpretation (?) of distress. The Mayor will recommend [illegible]

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The Secretary of State learns that the naturalization treaty with Bavaria is on equally liberal terms with that with North Germany. The Secretary hopes to negotiate a similar treaty with England.

There is a disposition on the part of a large number of Congressmen to adjourn about the 1st of July and so enter actively on the Presidential campaign.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The prize fight between McCool and Coburn which has elicited great interest among pugilists, had been arranged to come off in Dearborn Co., Indiana. McCool was arrested near the battle ground at three o'clock this morning [illegible] An immense crowd had assembled on the grounds. McCool was finally released on $1,000 bail and went to the ground to forfeit the bail and was enthusiastically received. The officers are after Coburn since last night, but he succeeded in dodging them. A sharp shower came up and drove the spectators into the woods. Betting was two to one on McCool. While awaiting the appearance of Coburn, the light weights, Joe's brother Michael Coburn, and Patsy Shepard commenced a fight, but the roughs broke into the ring and many were hurt and everything was in confusion. Coburn drove up to the field at a quarter to [illegible] the ground he was arrested by the sheriff. An attempt was made to rescue him but without effect. McCool entered the ring at [illegible] minutes [illegible] and [illegible] claimed the battle and the money. The crowd then dispersed.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—At about nine o'clock this morning Charles O'Neil, an express wagon driver, quarrelled with his wife and as it is alleged pushed her over a balcony. She fell a distance of ten feet, breaking her neck and killing her instantly. O'Neil stoutly denied the crime but was arrested on charge of murder.

A negro named Otterbridge is before the U. S. Commissioner on a charge of murder. He is accused of having murdered a Swedish [illegible] named Amison, on the bark Jenny Ford, on the voyage from San Juan del Sur to Honolulu.

The Montana sailed for Panama with $1,0[illegible] in treasure and 214 passengers. She had in tow the Panama bay steamer Arcon bound for Panama. When three miles outside of the heads the Arcon ran into the Montana, tearing a portion of the Arcon's upper works. The Arcon then returned to port.

The major portion of the California delegates to the National Democratic Convention left by the Montana.

A remarkable series of earthquake shocks was experienced in the interior of this State and Nevada about 9 o'clock last evening, of which there were traces at San Francisco and North and South of a line from Sacramento to Bent Church [illegible]. Although no damage is reported, the jolts were sharp enough to shake buildings in Virginia and frighten people out of doors.

The State Teachers Institute will commence in San Francisco on the 10th of June. It is expected that there will be a very general attendance of teachers from all parts of the State.

[illegible] convicted of stealing $500 from the brother of Helen [illegible] a girl with whom he eloped, was sentenced to San Quentin for two years and six months.

Mining stocks [illegible] this morning were comparatively light.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—The running race at the Ocean House course yesterday was accompanied by a terrible, and it is feared a fatal accident. As the horses were starting from the stand and going some two or three hundred yards, Mr. Finnegan's horse stepped into a hole, stumbled, turned a complete somersault, throwing the rider, a boy known as Patsy, over his head, falling on him, rolled over his body and terribly crushed him. He was taken up insensible and surgical assistance was summoned. Up to a late hour last night he was still insensible and no hopes of recovery.

The two story frame building corner Gilbert and [illegible] street took fire at midnight, but was extinguished without much damage.

A grand ratification of the nomination of Grant and Colfax was held at San Jose yesterday. Stirring speeches were made by Hon. [illegible] Owens and Frank Pixley.

The Panama steamer, fully due, has not yet arrived.

Monetary.

Arrived—British brig [illegible] from Batavia; bark [illegible] 13½ days from Boston; ship [illegible] from Shields.

Markets

Flour.—As expected the shipment to New York by steamer this morning was light, comprising the bulk of 1,300 bbls.; sales of 200 bbls superfine at [illegible]. [illegible] rates as follows: [illegible] sks $1 00@6 75; extra half sks $ 60@7 ; qr sks $7 25@7 50.

Wheat.—The market is decidedly firm, particularly for Santa Clara quality, for which $2 2¾@ [illegible] was offered this morning; sales include 500 sks choice milling at $2 2[illegible]; 400 sks choice Santa Clara at full figures. Good to choice samples may be quoted at $2 20@2 40 ℔ 100 lbs.

Barley.—We have to report a considerable movement. Chiefly on account of a single operation the sales were 100 sks ordinary feed $1 7[illegible]; [illegible] sks good do $1 75; 5,000 sks do private; 700 sks do $1 [illegible]; brewing quoted at $1 80@1 85 ℔ 100 lbs; sales of 100 sks choice at $2 40; the range of the market is $2 10@2 40 ℔ 100 lbs.

Cleared.—May 30th British ship Chelsea, Burrard Inlet; bark Delaware, Sitka.

Sailed.—Bark H. W. Almy, Portland.

REMAINS OF GREAT BEINGS AND QUADRUPEDS.—Dr. J. S. Miller of San Francisco formerly of Knight's Landing brought to the city for shipment on the Yosemite to the Bay yesterday various bones mammoth in size which had been uncovered by the action of the freshets during the late winter at a depth of about twenty feet beneath the earth's surface. They were found near Dunnigan's ranch, Yolo county, 15 miles from Knight's Landing. Among them are bones of the leg from the knee joint down, of the forearms, [illegible] These the Doctor thinks, approximate more nearly to the bones of human beings than of quadrupeds. If they are human the owner of them must have been of that race of giants generally considered mythical, which were to the height of 20 or 30 feet. If of a quadruped, the beast was certainly larger than any now in existence in the State. Miller has not had time to examine them, they having been found only ten days ago. Some of the bones are in good condition, and one about six inches in diameter and a foot long is entirely petrified. As remains of a race now extinct, they deserve attention from scientific men.

ALTHOUGH MANY PERSONS ARE exceedingly hard to please, particularly in matters of dress, yet it is now generally conceded that no lady or gentleman, however fastidious they may be, can thoroughly examine the splendid stock of Dress Goods and Clothing now offered so cheap at KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street, without finding just what they want. Any person can illustrate this fact simply by trying the experiment.

It was a Saying

Of Paley, a not distinguished writer, that he who is not a fool half the time is a fool all the time. This may or may not be true. We do know however that many persons are foolish who are suffering from dyspepsia and its kindred evils who do not try

The freight of the John L. Stephens, which sailed Friday evening, should be properly added to the above, but not yet having obtained her manifest, we are uninformed as to the figures. Her cargo, however, was not a heavy one. It will be seen that of the leading articles of commerce, the exports are greatly in excess of the receipts. Both the tables for the next month, will probably show a very considerable decrease.

BOUNDARIES OF PRECINCTS AND VOTING PLACES.—The [illegible] within this city having been reorganized since the last election, it may be a matter of some importance both to voters and to the judges of election to have the boundaries again published.

NORTH PORTLAND PRECINCT.

As established by the order of the county court North Portland precinct embraces all the precinct as formerly, lying north of the southern boundary of J. H. Couch's land claim. Place of voting, school house near Richard Williams'. Judges of election, W. Cornell, Henry Saxer, and [illegible]

WASHINGTON PRECINCT.

The following are the boundaries of Washington precinct: "Commencing at the southeast corner of John H. C[illegible]'s land claim, at low-water mark on the Willamette river, thence westerly with the south line of said Couch's land claim, to the intersection of the center of Thirteenth street, in the city of Portland; thence southerly with Thirteenth street to the intersection of the base line; thence east with the base line to the center of Tenth street; thence northerly with the center of Tenth street to the intersection of the center of Morrison street; thence easterly with the center of Morrison street to the Willamette river; thence down said river to the place of beginning." Place of voting, Willamette Theater, corner Stark and Second street. Judges of election, J. M. B[illegible], A. Frank Dekum and H. F. Bloch.

CENTRAL PRECINCT.

Boundaries—"Commencing at the foot of Madison street, at low-water mark in the Willamette river; thence westerly with said street to the center of Tenth street; thence southerly along said street to the intersection of Peter Smith's road; thence south with the line of said road to the county line; thence north with county line to the intersection of the base line; thence easterly with the base line to the intersection at the center of Tenth street; thence northerly to the center of Morrison street; thence easterly to the Willamette river; thence down said river to the place of beginning." Place of voting, [illegible]. Judges of election, Wm. Mastels, J. [illegible] and J. F. McCoy.

SOUTH PORTLAND.

[illegible] Place of voting, Harker's building, Front street. Judges of election, M. L. McLeran, J. [illegible] and Noah Lambert.

[illegible] OUTRAGES IN OWYHEE.—We have been shown a [illegible] from Silver City dated May 24th, from which we copy the following extract:

"[illegible] again in excitement, Beachy & Co.'s stage [illegible] arrived with the driver, Robt. Dixon, killed by [illegible]. This occurred a few miles below Inskip's, [illegible] valley, between Camp Lyon and the Owyhee river. There was no escort with the stage, the driver [illegible] told the soldiers that he thought they would not [illegible], as he had so many well armed passengers. [illegible] were two passengers on the outside with the driver. [illegible] was shot he fell dead, and having lost the reins, [illegible] began to run, when the two passengers jumped off and commenced firing. The others soon were out. [illegible] the Indians were corralled behind rocks, with sage-brush covering them. They slipped out from behind [illegible] rocks, and the first the passengers saw of them they [illegible] out of range of their guns. Having secured the [illegible] body, they (the passengers) proceeded a short distance when they overtook a wagon with passengers who [illegible] fired upon only a few minutes before at the same [illegible], and two of their number badly wounded. They then all traveled in company to Inskip's ranch, and, as [illegible] reached there, a few well armed men escorted them to this place."

The [illegible] Avalanche of the 26th has an account of the [illegible], substantially as above. It says by way of [illegible]: "Experience has taught that the canyon this side of [illegible]'s creek, and the neighborhood of Inskips, [illegible] country lying between these places, are, if not more exposed, more liable to Indian attack than other [illegible]. It seems as though a few soldiers might be so [illegible] as to protect these exposed places. If a few [illegible] Indians can not be killed off, let us have the roads [illegible] guarded against their raids. We doubt not Gen. Elliott will take these matters under consideration. There are [illegible] of these marauders, never more than seven or [illegible] at once, and rarely so many. They have [illegible] there on the Owyhee, and it does seem they [illegible] hunted down."

[illegible] NEWS BY THE MOUNTAINEER.—From the Dalles [illegible] of Saturday, we obtain the following: A letter from Canyon City, dated May 25th, says: "Some [illegible] were excited about the late Indian raid [illegible], but most of them are living in quiet [illegible], not in dread as I expected......Rev. [illegible], Indian Agent at Fort Simcoe, was in town [illegible] paid us a friendly visit at our sanctum. [illegible] is collecting the Indians that have been living about our town for some time, with the intention of [illegible] them to the Reservation. We are glad of this, as the amount of filth and disease that they are scattering around promiscuously is perfectly astonishing......The [illegible] is slowly rising. At this time last year and the year before it was fifteen feet higher than it is now. [illegible] appearances it is almost impossible for us [illegible] from the high water this year. ......A letter received from Lieut. Jas. M. Ropes, U. S. [illegible], dated at South Fork of John Day river, May [illegible], who is in command of a party en route for Camp [illegible] McGarry, says: "So far the Lord has [illegible] good health and spirits. There are no Indians [illegible] of the road. We are all well, in[illegible] and children."

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—The following [illegible] proceedings of Saturday, May 30th:

Peter Wilhelm, of Bavaria, Peter Schuler, of Prussia, [illegible] W. Tweddle, of Nova Scotia, and John Murphy, [illegible] were admitted to citizenship.

[illegible] and H. W. Hodge [illegible] admitted as attorneys.

[illegible] A. Sutherland, bankrupt; order denying [illegible] to refund $60, paid by petitioning creditors.

[illegible] Buck, bankrupt. Motion to strike out [illegible] of debtor, allowed, and petitioning [illegible] leave to withdraw objections to verification.

[illegible] voluntary bankrupt. Order for final [illegible] certificate granted.

[illegible] B. C. Johnson, bankrupt. Order for final discharge and certificate granted.

The following petitions were filed in bankruptcy: Linville Bowman, Benton county; Leister Cohen, Portland; Jacob Z[illegible], Benton county; James A. Murray, Portland; [illegible]; J. W. Myers, Portland; E. Wertheimer, Oregon City.

[illegible] COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The Multnomah County Teachers' Institute met at the Central School building in Portland, on Saturday, May 30th, 1868. The Institute having been called to order, Mr. Pershin [illegible] four delegates and four substitutes be appointed to attend the State Teachers' Institute, to be held at Eugene City in July. The motion prevailed, and the President appointed as delegates, Mr Per[illegible], Mr. Garlick, Miss Fanny Holmes and Miss Callie [illegible], and as substitutes, Mr. Kittridge, Mr. Pratt, [illegible] Polk and Miss Tower.

[illegible] the Institute decided not to have another [illegible] after the meeting of the State Teachers' [illegible].

[illegible] of Mr. Kittridge, a vote of thanks was tendered [illegible], Dr. Atkinson, for the able manner [illegible] conducted the deliberations of the [illegible], after which the Institute adjourned, subject to [illegible] of the County Superintendent.

[illegible] DEMONSTRATION.—The Demonstration by the [illegible], Saturday night, was a decidedly "enthusiastic" affair—in the Democratic way. There was an immense amount of enthusiasm taken in during the afternoon, at a bit a glass—paid for, mostly, by Democratic [illegible] and thimble-riggers. During the marching of [illegible], much enthusiasm was taken in from [illegible] from band band, and worked off in [illegible] and hideous howls. Occasionally [illegible] fall down in a fit of ecstatic [illegible] slept off where he fell. These ex[illegible] more frequent as the evening wore on, [illegible] large proportion of the crowd seemed in imminent danger of falling into the ecstatic stage of enthusiasm. Even when morning dawned, the sidewalks, [illegible] and gutters were somewhat speckled with the [illegible] of ecstatically enthusiastic Democrats who had not been gathered in by their more conservative brethren.

THE RACES.—The race between the horse "Vallandigham" and the Victoria mare "Pilgrim," on Saturday afternoon, 600 yards—was won by the former by seventy five feet. The foot race advertised to come off the same afternoon, between the Sheppard Boy and Michael Shea, was [illegible] indefinitely. The race will probably not be run at all.

SHIPPING.—The John L. Stephens, the barks Rainier, [illegible], and Almatia were weather bound at Astoria when the Wright came up. The bark Occident is in the river and on her way up.

REMARKABLE FORESIGHT.—We observed in the Democratic procession Saturday evening a caparisoned coffin, carried evidently to remind Democrats of the uncertainty and ultimate fall of all human hopes. We have occasionally heard of eccentric people who have provided and kept in their houses, such pieces of furniture; but such conduct has always been considered in very queer taste. People, however, who have few or no friends, exhibit very prudent foresight in providing as far as possible for their own burial.

CHIEF ENGINEER, VANCOUVER FIRE DEPARTMENT.—We stated last week, says the Register, that there would likely be a new election called to elect a successor to G. T. Hodges, Chief Engineer of the Vancouver Fire Department, on the presumption that he would be forced to resign in consequence of his business demanding his presence in Portland. We have good authority for stating that Mr. Hodges has no intention of resigning.

OREGON PRODUCTS.—The following were the arrivals on Saturday: Per steamer Senator, 184 qr sks flour, 5 hf bbls dried apples, 441 sks oats, 15 pkges unspecified.

Per Wenat, 70 gunnies potatoes, 3 kegs beer, and 1 box eggs.

Per Alert, 1,173 qr sks flour, 287 sks oats, and 170 sks feed.

DEAD.—Basey Biven, formerly a merchant at the Dalles and well known through Eastern Oregon and Idaho, died at Monterey, Cal., on the 21st of May. He was editor of a paper at Monterey at the time of his death.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.—The dwelling of Mr. Geo. Bachman, of Lewis River, was burned on the 26th ult. Mr. Bachman was a heavy loser by the flood of last winter.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Active will sail for Victoria at 2 P. M. to-day. The Wright will sail for the same destination at 6 P. M. on Thursday, the 4th.

COUNTY COURT.—The June term of the County Court will open to-day; but owing to the election, no business will probably be transacted.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Mr. Tarbell, purser of the George S. Wright, for files of late Victoria papers.

MESSAGE.—There is a message uncalled for at the telegraph office for Mrs. Mary J. Whitney.

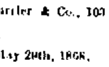
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,



DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE—Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

I am now making, amongst numerous other styles of ARTIFICIAL TEETH, the improved Vulcanite Plates of Dr. G. W. Cool's Patent, patented Dec. 3, 186[illegible], the improvement of which consists in lining the entire concave surface with fine gold; it not only makes the plate double as strong and cleanlier than the common Vulcanite Plate. It also can by it be made considerably thinner and lighter, whereas the price is but little above that for common plates. Call and and see specimens.

N. B.—Dentists wishing to secure the office right for Dr. G. W. Cool's Improved Vulcanite Plates can have it made out to them by applying to this office.

N. B.—To strangers I would say, that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the mission life of Mrs. Ingalls, in Burmah, is well told in the "Baptist Messenger," relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed; and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest; all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer.—London Times.

Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Taroy, Burmah, writes, "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." mldawlm

SIXTH INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION
OF THE
Mechanics' Institute,
SAN FRANCISCO.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE MECHANICS' Institute hereby give notice that the Sixth Industrial Exhibition of that Association will be held some time in August next, in a building to be erected for the purpose in Union Square in this city. Every preparation will be made to accommodate exhibitors and visitors with a view to make the Exhibition profitable, instructive and pleasant to all parties.

During the three years which have intervened since the holding of the last Exhibition in this city the manufacturing, mechanical, scientific and useful and ornamental arts have made unprecedented progress on this coast, and it is believed that the proposed Exhibition will exceed any other in value that has ever been held on the shores of the Pacific.

The plan of building to be erected, which has been adopted by the Board of Directors, it is believed will prove to be the best adapted, both for display and convenience of the public, of any building ever erected in the State. The building will be perfectly water-tight, being covered with a shingle roof, so that no damage from the elements can be anticipated.

All parties who are interested in any of the branches of Manufactures, Mechanics, or the Arts and Sciences are invited to exhibit in the proposed Exhibition, and to share in the publicity and consequent profit which always attends such enterprises. Suitable premiums will be offered, and the specific date of opening the Exhibition will be published at some future time.

By order of the Board of Directors.

A CARD.

WHEN THE POPULATION OF SAN FRANCISCO increases so rapidly, how is it the number of deaths decreases? Simply because that excellent Tonic, "Lacour's Sarsapariphere Bitters" have been introduced. Like the lighthouse to the mariner they are the guide to those who use them to outride the breakers of disease in the journey of life.

To these was awarded the FIRST PREMIUM at the late State Fair. The committee highly and especially recommended them for their medicinal qualities.

Their Emblem is a "Lighthouse."
Their Device, "Pro Bono Publico."

STEAM POWER, NOS. 635 AND 637 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers;
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Walking Round Jerusalem.

How the Young Folks can make a Map of the City.

JERUSALEM, Feb. 7, 1868.

To the Editor of the Boston Journal: I once knew an American boy—no matter what his name was—who used to read about Jerusalem, the Temple, Mount Zion, Mount Moriah, and the Pool of Siloam, but who had no definite idea as to where they were situated. Possibly there may be a like jumble in the minds of some of the Sunday School scholars of America. I have been walking round the city to-day, and now sit down to tell them.

HOW TO MAKE A MAP OF JERUSALEM.

The present city is nearly square, but not exactly. They must imagine angles and crooks in the walls. The ancient city was not so wide as it was long. There is a deep ravine on the east, one on the south, and one also on the west, but none on the north. Keeping these things in mind, just take up any book which you may have on hand, and imagine that it represents Jerusalem inside the walls. Lay the book on a sheet of paper, draw a crinkled line on the paper down the right hand side, another down the left hand side and across the bottom, to represent brooks—the waters running off in the direction as you have drawn the lines, the two brooks uniting below the lower right hand corner. The right hand line is the Kedron flowing through the valley of Jehosaphat. The left hand is the Gihon, and the valley on that side has the same name, but the valley at the bottom is called the valley of Himmon, through which the Gihon flows. Write the names as you go on with your map making, and it will be all the more plain. This will give you an outline, not exactly as it is, but near enough to enable you to see where the Temple stood and where Solomon built his palace, which had such a wonderful throne of ivory and gold.

A WALK ROUND THE WALLS.

Come with me now to the upper right hand corner. We will commence there and walk round the city. Run your pencil down the page about a third of the way, and think of a gateway in the walls—called St. Stephen's gate. It is said that Stephen was stoned to death on the side of the hill, a few rods from the [illegible] I am sure that you would like to sta[illegible] the gate and read the 7th chapter of [illegible], which will tell you how it happe[illegible] to death.

S[illegible] and look into the ravine [illegible] is very steep down the Ked[illegible] If you should set a stone rolling it won[illegible] down to the bottom. You see [illegible] olive trees at the bottom of the valley [illegible] the side of the hill, and just over [illegible] yard, surrounded by a high wall. [illegible] it yesterday, and found it 62 [illegible] one way and 53 the other. There are some old [illegible] and cypress trees and flower beds there. It is Gethsemane. It is not certain that the Lord Jesus Christ endured his terrible agony exactly on that spot, but we know that it was somewhere in the valley at our feet. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John all have told us how terrible that agony was. Some Sunday evening just read over the story and think of it as having taken place here, and I doubt not it will seem more real.

But we will go on with our map making. Draw your pencil a little further, about half way down the page, and you have reached the spot where, according to all we can learn, stood the northern wall of the Temple area—that is, the ground around the Temple. This is Mount Moriah. It is not a mountain as you look at it from the north, but go down into the valley and you will see that it is very high. If you are real smart at throwing stones you can sta[illegible] by the wall and throw a stone across the Kedron, which is more than two hundred feet below you here.

All of the hill-side opposite is covered with gra[illegible], and at the bottom of the ravine there are tombs hewn in the solid rock. One of them is called the tomb of Absalom. It is 22 feet [illegible] hewn from the solid rock, which is [illegible] along the hill-side. You see [illegible] of stones around it which have been thrown against it by Jewish boys. The Jews have a particular spite against Absalom because he was an undutiful son. They hate his name, and whenever they go near his tomb they let fly a stone. The front of the [illegible] is all battered away, and a hole worn through bigger than a hogshead—wholly by the st[illegible]. Two boys are at it now, slinging stones and muttering curses. If you have forgotten the story of Absalom you will find it in the 2d book of Samuel, the 15th chapter, and others which follow.

PATHS ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

I [illegible] tell you that the hill on the other side of the Kedron is the Mount of Olives; but there it is, rising before us—ledges along its sides, shelves of stone, with terraces, also loose stones, old walls and olive trees. It is [illegible] if you are good runners you could get to the top in about fifteen minutes. I forgot to tell you also about the paths on this [illegible] but they are in full view. Commence now with your pencil at St. Stephen's gate, make a dotted line down to the garden of Geth[illegible], and carry one line straight up the hill. That will take you to the top of the Mount. Start now from the garden and make another dotted line parallel with the [illegible] carrying it down till you get opposite the southeast corner of the city—the lower [illegible] hand corner of the book, then make a [illegible] to the east.

Both [illegible] paths led out to the village of Bet[illegible], about two miles distant, which was the [illegible] you know, of Lazarus, and of Mar[illegible]. It is [illegible] certain that [illegible] His [illegible] into th[illegible] along this lower path, and th[illegible] there, where the road begins to [illegible] He beheld the city and wept over it. If you [illegible] along [illegible] rocky path, it is very [illegible] that you would step upon [illegible] by Him [illegible] as he went to and fr[illegible]. He rode on [illegible] day [illegible] along here and [illegible] almost as if we could behold the advancing multitude, the [illegible] branches of palm, the long [illegible] some before and some behind the Saviour—as if we could almost hear them shouting, "Hosanna to the son of David!"

So much has taken place right here, that I find myself forgetting many things. But in that story of Absalom you will read how David fled from the city—how he went up the Mount of Olives weeping—how that miserable fellow Shimei threw stones at him; it was on the other path that all this happened.

MOUNT MORIAH.

[illegible] years after that, something else happened right here, close by us, inside the city walls. There was a man named Araunah who had a threshing floor there, before the Temple was built, and the people used to bring their wheat into the city and thresh it on the rock, which was called Mount Moriah. One day an Angel came and stood there, and stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, but you will find out all about it much better than I can tell you, in the last chapter of the second book of Samuel.

SILOAM.

We are at the lower end of the city—the bottom of the page. Carry your pencil a third of the way across the page, and you are at Cheesemonger's Gate—the place, I suppose, where the people used to sell cheese. There used to be a valley here, called the Cheesemonger's Valley, but it is pretty much filled up now. It was called also the Tyropean Valley, and formed the western side of Mount Moriah.

But carry your pencil now down about half way to the line you have drawn representing the Valley of Himmon; make a point there, and you are at the Pool of Siloam—down in the ravine, three hundred feet below the Cheesemonger's Gate. Many a time you have sung that beautiful hymn, descriptive of the place:

By cool Siloam's shady rill,
How fair the lily grows!
How sweet the breath beneath the hill,
Of Sharon's dewy rose.

HIMMON.

The Valley of Himmon is very deep. It was down there that the people of Jerusalem worshipped the god of Moloch, which you know had a head like a bull. There they cast their children into the fire to appease the wrath of this terrible idol! You see that the other side of the ravine is dark and rugged, that the limestone cliffs are almost perpendicular; but there are clefts and shelves where you can creep up. You see holes in the rocks which are ancient tombs. The field on the top is said to be the Aceldama, or the Potter's field, which was purchased with the money given to Judas for the betrayed Christ.

MOUNT ZION.

Walking along under the southern wall, going up hill, we stand on Mount Zion. Carry your pencil along till you are almost at the lower left hand corner of the page. Here is the Zion gate. Inside the walls David lived and died and was buried. Solomon's house, which was so costly, stood here, and also Herod's palace. A magnificent stone bridge with high arches spanned the Cheesemonger's Valley, reaching from this point to the Temple. You can see the lower stones of the arch now over on the Temple's side.

Here stood the citadel, the castle, the stronghold of Zion, into which the ark was brought from Kirjathjearim, a town which we passed when we came from Jaffa. This is the spot of which you read so much about in the Psalms, about which so many beautiful hymns have been written. On this hill was that judgment hall where Jesus was scourged and from whence he was led out to be crucified.

THE WESTERN SIDE OF THE CITY.

We turn now the southwest corner and walk up the western side. Carry your pencil a little more than half way up the page and you are at the Jaffa gate, which is sometimes called Bethlehem gate, because the paths leading to those towns leave the city at this point. Bethlehem you know is five miles south of Jerusalem. The road crosses the Gihon ravine, running along the hill on the other side, and about a mile out leads over a pleasant plain—called the plain of Rephaim, where David had a great battle with the Philistines about 2,911 years ago. You will find an exceedingly interesting account of it in the 5th chapter of the 2d book of Samuel—how he went out from the city—fetched a compass—that it took them on the flank. There were mulberry trees out on the ridge of land this side of Bethlehem, and David heard a strange noise, as he came over the hill with his army to make the attack. Just turn to the account of the battle and read it—the sound of the going in the trees and how the Philistines were routed. It was a terrible defeat to them. They fled in hot haste over the hills toward the west, down through the valleys and ravines, out on the plain, across it to the Mediterranean, followed by David and his army, a distance of more than forty miles. It was such a victory that the Philistines never again dared to invade the country while David was King.

CALVARY.

We are at the northwest corner of the city now, on quite high ground, and we can look along the whole northern side to the northeast corner, the place from whence we started. You see the Damascus Gate just half way; locate it half way across the top of the page and you have the position of all the gates of the city which are now open. There were other gates, but the passages have been walled up. You see a great many olive trees north of the city, and the ground is covered with small stones and fragments of rock which have been accumulating during the many centuries that have rolled away since Jerusalem was a city.

We are not far, probably, from Calvary—the place where Jesus was crucified. It may have been inside the walls, it may have been here among those olive groves—no one can tell. You can make a mark on your map and think of it as being somewhere near this place. I am very sure that if you were to sit down here beneath one of these old trees and read the account of the death of Jesus, that it would seem more real than ever before. You would think of him as being led out this way from the Judgment Hall.

"Silent he moveth on all uncomplaining
Though wearily his grief and burden press;
And foes—no shame nor pity now retaining,
With scoffs and jeering mock his deep distress."

Please read the accounts which John and the other Evangelists have given of the crucifixion and of the resurrection, and think of their having taken place in this vicinity.

I am afraid that I have not made the description very clear to you, but if you should have any difficulty in locating the places on your map just get your parents or your Sunday School teacher, or your teacher in the day school, to help you a little, and I am sure you will get it right. If you get these localities well fixed in your mind, I am confident that you will understand what I intend to write to the "old folks," to your fathers and mothers, in another letter.

PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern:—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel, and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which, if he would only take the case to Court, would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

Sheriff's Sale.

BY virtue of a warrant issued out of the County Court, of the State of Oregon, for the County of Multnomah, to me directed, commanding me to levy upon the goods and chattels of the delinquent tax-payers named in the delinquent tax roll, for the year 1867, thereto attached, and if none be found then upon the real property as set forth and described in said tax-list, or so much thereof as shall satisfy the amount of taxes so charged, together with costs and expenses, I have, this 1st day of May, 1868, (for want of personal property) levied upon the following described pieces or parcels of land, as set forth in said tax list, lying and being in Multnomah County, State of Oregon, known and described, and assessed to the parties as follows, to-wit:

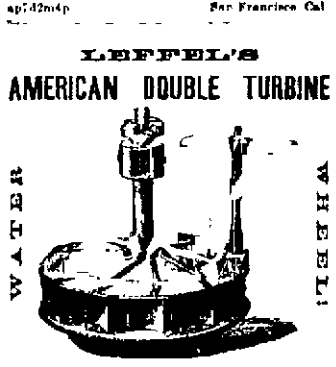
LEFFEL'S
AMERICAN DOUBLE TURBINE



THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world, have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date, driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, Woolen Factories, &c., &c.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so-called "Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement and copy of the "James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel," and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice, for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "Bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States:

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does, and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel, does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all. He has no right to use those two tier of buckets, whether alone or with a third, or any other number of tiers added. It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN."

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether it is the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement, whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted.

A. MYERS.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing, and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, cough, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
